Toolkit for local housing strategies

for autistic adults and adults with a learning disability

Step 9: What types of funding can help to pay for housing?

This step is about how housing for autistic adults and adults with a learning disability can be funded.

Funding options could include the government, the local authority, charities and private organisations.

How can I contribute to this step? Some examples:

I learn about different ways housing in my local area can be funded.

I help decide how the information about funding should be included in the housing strategy.
