

No Decision About Me Without Me; the Mental Capacity Act 2005 and Me

A public and professional engagement event to raise awareness of MCA in York

Jeannie Freeman, Christine Pearson (York MCA)

Jeannie.freeman@york.gov.uk Christine.pearson15@nhs.net

Project method

1. Regular MCA Lead Health Professionals meeting will focus on specific questions from the LGA MCA Improvement Tool. Discussion and findings to be recorded in form of a newsletter to be circulated post meeting alongside the full improvement document.
2. Two awareness raising open events supported by the Lead Council Member for Adult Services with local press in attendance. One event at CYC West Offices and one at York Hospital about LPA, Advance Decision and Statements. Delivered in partnership with CAB, York Hospital Trust, City of York Council, Vale of York CCG. Large variety of resources available at both sites, supported by experienced BIAs.
3. Questionnaire for the public about their knowledge of the MCA
4. Developing survey monkey questionnaire for all managing authorities about MCA compliance, development and improvement for delivery in Q1 2016/17

Project results/evaluation

Will have newsletter as above as well as results from public questionnaire and survey monkey later in year
